

WARAHA
INC

About Us

Varaha Inc., a third-generation family-owned brand, has been rooted in trust and excellence since 1979. Starting as a fine jewellery company in Kolkata, India, specializing in gold, silver and gemstones, we've grown into a global manufacturer and exporter of premium fashion jewellery and gemstones, proudly serving both domestic and international markets for over 45 years.

Pratik Shaw, a Computer Science engineer with a dual MBA from India and France and former Team Lead at Amazon India, now leads Varaha Inc. with a global vision and a deep passion for quality craftsmanship.

We are supported by a skilled team of artisans from across India, each bringing a love for jewellery making and a commitment to excellence. Alongside them, we have our dedicated support team managing logistics, customer service and operations, ensuring that every client receives customized, high-quality solutions with consistency and care.

We operate from Kolkata (IST time zone) and proudly serve clients across the globe, with a strong focus on international markets.

Our Mission & Vision

At Varaha, our mission is to provide businesses with easy and dependable access to high-quality global products — backed by the kind of support they can genuinely rely on. We believe in building honest, long-term relationships, working with integrity and delivering real value through competitive pricing and trusted expertise tailored to your needs. As we grow, we remain committed to leading the export industry through constant innovation, adapting to our clients' evolving needs and helping them move forward with confidence.

Our vision is to be recognized as a trusted global brand — known for quality, sustainability and customer-first values that reflect personal expression and evolving customer needs. By expanding into new markets, launching diverse product lines and collaborating with international clients, we aim to build long lasting partnerships through innovation, dedication and a deep commitment to excellence.
